Rebecca Newberger Goldstein

36 Arguments for the Existence of God: A Work of Fiction

READING & BOOKSIGNING

Thursday, February 4 • 4PM

“Comic and supremely witty, 36 Arguments for the Existence of God is both a satire of the academic world and a feast of philosophical and religious ideas.”

—Alan Lightman, author of Einstein’s Dreams

Catherine Lutz

Carjacked

READING & BOOKSIGNING

Wednesday, February 10 • 4PM

Carjacked details the complex impact of the automobile on modern society and shows us how to develop a healthier, cheaper, and greener relationship with cars.

Gerald M. Carbone

Washington: Lessons in Leadership

READING & BOOKSIGNING

Saturday, February 13 • 2PM

“With this book, Carbone reminds us that greatness is not simply a matter of victories on the battlefield. Greatness is about leadership, determination, and character.”--Terry Golway, author of Washington’s General

Rory Raven

Wicked Conduct

READING & BOOKSIGNING

Saturday, February 13 • 7PM

In 1830s New England, a tragic crime involving an unwed, pregnant woman and a married Methodist minister left the nation clamoring for justice and became one of early America’s most sensational murder trials.

Paul Tremblay

No Sleep Till Wonderland

READING & BOOKSIGNING

Thursday, February 18 • 7PM

“Paul Tremblay somehow manages to channel Franz Kafka, write like Raymond Chandler, and whip up a completely original, utterly whack-a-doodle reinvention of the detective novel. This book rocks.”—Mark Haskell Smith, author of Salty
