

Textbook Rental Agreement TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Brown University Bookstore is pleased to introduce a textbook rental program providing another option to save on the cost of textbooks. The Textbook Rental Program allows students (with a valid Brown University Student ID) the opportunity to rent textbooks for the duration of one (1) semester. Rental textbooks are only available for select titles and in limited quantities.

By signing this agreement, I agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. I understand the rental textbook is the property of the Brown University Bookstore and in agreeing with the terms of this rental program I accept the responsibility to use the materials and return them to the Brown University Bookstore in resalable condition.
 2. I will return rented materials to the Brown University Bookstore at 244 Thayer St, Providence, RI on or before close of business on the rental return date _____ (last day of final exams). The Brown University Bookstore is not responsible to remind me of the rental return date and is not responsible for returned materials shipped to the store via any carrier.
 3. Conditions Upon Return: I am fully responsibility for the return of the rented materials in salable condition and for payment of fees and/or replacement costs if the rented materials are lost, stolen, or returned in unsalable condition (as determined by Brown Bookstore staff). Salable condition is defined as no damage to the book - spine is intact and all component parts of the book are present (including all identifying stickers) and undamaged (no tears, water damage, etc.). Limited highlighting and writing in rental materials is permitted.
 4. Late Fee: I understand I will be charged a $5.00 per day late fee up to a maximum of $25 if the textbook is not returned by the rental return date. Returns will not be accepted beyond the fifth day and will be considered a failure to return (see #5) and the $25 late charge will credited to the associated costs.
 5. Failure to Return: If I fail to return the rented materials by the rental return date, an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid for the rental and the current cost of a new copy plus a 10% handling fee will be applied to my student account statement via my Bookstore charge.
 6. Refund: I may return the rented materials for a refund within the time frame of and in accordance with the Brown University Bookstore's specified return policies.
 7. I am at least 18 years of age, a currently enrolled Brown University student, and am entering this agreement of my own free will.
 8. I have read and fully understand the provisions of this agreement and completion of my rental transaction constitutes my acceptance of the agreement terms.
